

2020 Fo Guang Shan Temple of Toronto Sangha Offering

Fo Guang Shan Monastery has been able to propagate the Dharma for the benefit of all sentient beings through the enthusiastic support of all its members and benefactors since its establishment.

According to Buddhist tradition, on the approach of the annual Sangha Day, we may cultivate tremendous merits by making offerings to the Sangha, and practice filial piety by dedicating the merits to our parents and ancestors, and to all sentient beings. The best way to make offerings to the Triple Gem and support the monastery is to make offerings to the monastic community rather than to just one person or a small number of people; to the entire year rather than for only one meal; consistently rather than just for the present. In this way, we are supporting the Sangha and helping them practice and spread Buddhism, and therefore it deepens the meaning of this practice.

In order to thank all our devotees and benefactors for their support over the years, the monastics will recite the Ksitigarbha Sutra and transfer all merits to their parents, ancestors, and loved ones during the entire seventh lunar month.

May the compassionate light of the Buddha shine on you for the perfection of merits and wisdom!
